Thumbnail Grading Worksheet

Thumbnails are small sketches of your comic done very quickly. Completing your thumbnails can allow you to work out image ideas within your comic before doing serious detail work.

Partner's Idea:

Criteria	Does it meet this criteria?
Thumbnails show a visual plan for assembling the final comic	Yes/No
The thumbnails include visual elements that clearly flow from panel to panel	Yes/No
The thumbnails include visual elements that clearly flow from page to page	Yes/No
Word bubbles are present in the thumbnails	Yes/No
Notes are included that indicate the artist's thought process when solving visual problems in the comic	Yes/No
Story provides closure (i.e. does not end on any kind of "to be continued" plot line that requires additional pages in order to be complete. The comic script in the model provides an acceptable minimum of closure for this assignment.)	Yes/No
Number of "Yes" answers=
Open Feedback: Please provide kind, specific, and helpful feedback for the creator. Remember that this is an early attempt to create and that your feedback is pivotal in the process of this learner refining their work. If you graded the learner a "no" on any of the answers above, use this space to indicate why and if there are any suggestions you have for improvement for their next draft.

Rubric

Look at which of the above ideas has the highest numbers of "Yes" answers. How many "Yes" answers will determine what you need to improve on for your comic

0-2 = Poor	3-4 = Satisfactory	5 = Good	6 = Excellent
